

The Caveat: This is a Rigorous Course of Study. It is Not for Everyone, and Not Everyone Will Qualify:

The Arrangement is rigorous, with strict academic criteria for success. It requires intellectual ability, perseverance, excellent grades, a good score on the LSAT, and demonstrated maturity. The Arrangement does not guarantee recommendation by Le Moyne for admission to Suffolk University Law School, nor does it guarantee admission to Suffolk Law. It is not for everyone, and not everyone who starts out will succeed. But we'll be there with you each semester, checking your progress and making recommendations to let you know if you're on track or not.

In the end, as in all academic endeavors that involve professional graduate school, your success depends upon your motivation and ability. And if you do not qualify for the 3+3 Arrangement, or decide during your undergraduate education that it's not for you, there's no downside -- you simply finish your four years at Le Moyne in the regular fashion, and apply for law school, graduate school, get a job, etc., as you would have without participating in the 3+3 Arrangement.

A copy of this "Statement of Student Understanding" will be executed in the second semester of the Le Moyne student's freshman year for conditional admission into the 3+3 Arrangement, so for full transparency it is a good idea to read it now.
